CHOPIN WRITES THAT HIS LOVER
"Madame Sand is not at her home tonight but at my house..."

10. CHOPIN, FREDERIC (1810-1849)

One of the most eminent Composers of piano music. Besides his musical genius, Chopin is also known for his notorious love affair with George Sand, the most famous woman writer in 19th-century France. Sand was a prolific writer and represented the epitome of French romantic idealism. She astounded her readers with her frank exploration of women's sexual feelings and her passionate call for women to find emotional satisfaction. Sand was introduced to Chopin by Liszt in 1837. Their love affair lasted for over ten years. Rare ANS, 1p, 8vo, "Sunday" ny, in French, addressed to Mademoiselle de Rosieres Chopin writes in part: "Madame Sand is not at her home tonight, but at my house--therefore at ... no. 9." Signed "Chopin." An exceptional personal note. Inventory No. 2452 $24,800

RARE MANET ALS

11. MANET, EDOUARD (1832-1883)

French Impressionist and one of the founders of the Impressionist school. ALS, 1p, 8vo, nd, Tuesday, ny, in French, to the art critic Zacharie Astruc regarding Manet's friend Abbot Hurel who is an officiate at the Magdaleine Church in Paris. Manet writes: "My dear Zacharie, Abbot Hurel is going to make a trip to Spain. He would be very grateful to you if you would make a detailed itinerary. He wants to go as far as Malaga. Would you have lunch with me next Friday at noon? I will write to you both from home and you can talk it over. Regards, E. Manet." Letters of Manet are uncommon due to the fact that he died years before Monet and Renoir. Bold clear writing and signature, and in excellent condition. Inventory No. 1230 $1,950

Gandhi ALS: "...the happiness we should all prize..."

12. GANDHI, MAHATMA (1869-1948)

Indian political and religious leader. ALS, 1p, on postcard, in English, 1934, addressed to George Joseph, editor of the Independent newspaper, who was jailed for advocating India's independence. Gandhi writes, in part: "...May the New Year bring you the happiness we should all prize...Bapu." During this period, Gandhi, too, was imprisoned for his non-violent struggles against the British. Gandhi's sentiments, as well as the connection with another advocate of Indian autonomy, make this charming letter particularly desirable. Inventory No. 1327 (See Illustration) $1,650

Victor Hugo AQS: "To Love Is To Act."

13. HUGO, VICTOR (1802-1885)

French novelist known for "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" and "Les Miserables". Wonderful AQS, 12mo, in French. Hugo writes: "To love is to act". Signed in full "Victor Hugo." This significant sentiment summarizes the themes of Hugo's romantic novels. Ideal for display. Inventory No. 2361 $980

EXCESSIVELY RARE 8X10"

55. WRIGHT , WILBUR (1867-1912)

U.S. Aviator who, with his brother Orville, designed and built the first successful motor-powered airplane. On Dec. 17, 1903 Orville Wright became the pilot of man's first flight at Kitty Hawk, N.C. The plane stayed in the air 12 seconds and traveled 120 feet. On the last flight that day, Wilbur was at the controls of the plane. He traveled 852 feet in 59 seconds. In 1912, shortly after the Wrights had begun to reap the rewards earned by their invention, Wilbur died unexpectedly of typhoid. Consequently, items signed by Wilbur are very scarce. Superb SP. 8x10". b/w. showing Wilbur at the controls of his plane The Wright Flier. In Pau, Wilbur demonstrated his plane to European notables including King Edward of England. Signed "Pau, 23 March 1909. Wilbur Wright." We cannot think of a nicer Wilbur Wright signed photo.
