Cuban Guerrilla Leader Che Guevara Document Signed

Revolutionary and Cuban guerrilla leader. Document signed, in Spanish, 1 page, 14 x 11", Republica de Cuba, Ministerio de Industrias letterhead, March 1962. Official Republic of Cuba Ministry of Industry document in red and black with embossed stamp in signature area. The right side of the document depicts a well-muscled worker bearing a banner reading "Produccion." The document is an Honorable Mention for an outstanding performance by a machinery worker for the month of March 1962, he "has been selected for [his] endeavor in the increase of production." Signed as Minister of Industries "Che," File holes to left margin. In very good condition.

Guevara became an official at the National Institute of Agrarian Reform, president of the National Bank of Cuba, and Minister of Industries. In this capacity, Guevara faced the challenge of adapting Cuba's capitalist agrarian economy into a socialist industrial economy. After negotiating a trade agreement with the Soviet Union in 1960, Guevara represented Cuba on many commercial missions and delegations to Soviet-aligned nations in Africa and Asia after the United States imposed an embargo on the nation.
